

KLOVE is the main radio station I listen to. It has been very inspirational and supportive to me over the years. This station provides hope, love and support to the community. It is family friendly and a safe place to listen without worry about profanity and inappropriate topics and language. Please don't take KLOVE off FM stations! Thanks